Unitarian Universalist Breakfast Forum
Martin Luther King Room
1187 Franklin Street at Geary

9:00: Coffee/socializing. Breakfast is available for nominal fee.
9:30: Program (see below)
10:30: Questions, Comments, Discussion
10:45: Adjourn
11:00: Worship Services (in the Sanctuary)

Sunday, April 9, 2017

Andrés Soto: "Communities for a Better Environment"
Raised Richmond CA, Andres has advocated for social justice who for more than 30 years has engaged in struggles for civil rights, educational rights, immigrants rights and environmental justice. Andrés has also been on the front lines of the battles for gun control, youth violence prevention, elimination of police brutality and is a founding member of the Richmond Progressive Alliance. Andrés is also a working musician and a proud father of two sons and grandfather of four grandchildren.

April 23, 2017  Begins at 12:30pm (no 9:30 program)

Deborah Kennedy: "Nature Speaks, Art & Poetry for the Earth"
An award winning artist, writer, poet, teacher, activist with exhibitions in the U.S. and Europe. Her book will be central to her presentation, which is a poetical realization of scientific theory and our mismatched relationship to the Natural World. It features her poetry and visual portrayals that bring art and science together with focus on ecological themes.