

OWL-SF Presents a Preview of 2015 Legacy Film Festival On Aging

Preview: Wed, Sept 2, 1-2 PM
835 Market St. Rm 677 (Powell BART)

Festival itself: Fri-Sun, Sept 18-20
1746 Post (at Webster, Japantown, SF)

The Legacy Film Festival on Aging shows many little-seen, independent short films, documentaries and feature-length narrative stories that allows younger people to see their potential in older years and older people to appreciate their journey in later life. The 2015 themes are about Love, Sex, Generations, Memory, Friendships, End of Life Choices.

Read about this year's films at <http://tinyurl.com/nhvg7d6>

Sheila Malkind, OWL-SF Board Member and Director of the Legacy Film Festival on Aging, will present a preview of films to be screened at the 2015 Festival. All Welcome, Free, Wheelchair OK.

OWL-SF 415-989-4422 info@owlsf.org
www.owlsf.org