

Memory Loss, Dementia and Alzheimer's Disease: The Basics

Learn about the differences between normal aging and dementia, the basics of Alzheimer's disease and related disorders, the diagnostic process, and management of the disease. Learn about resources offered by the Alzheimer's Association, keys for planning for the future, and how family members and caregivers can help the person with dementia.

DATE: Wednesday, October 5, 2016

TIME: 2:00-4:00 pm

LOCATION: 3rd floor, Diamond Rm., 2238 Geary Blvd, San Francisco, CA 94115

COST: FREE, open to public, no registration required

CONTACT: Joy Salanga, Health Education, 415-833-3452