Come to a presentation by a representative for Strike for Climate Justice! They will discuss plans for this September, when millions of people will take collective action to demand climate justice.

In San Francisco there will be a mass non-violent direct action on September 25th to confront the corporations and governments responsible for this crisis, starting at 7am at Montgomery & Market. Protesters have identified and will take nonviolent direct action to disrupt key locations of climate of corporations, financial institutions and government offices along or near Montgomery St. They will paint 20 circular street murals of solutions to climate chaos and injustice along Montgomery St.. They will transform "Wall St West" (Montgomery St) into a positive vision of solutions.

Come discuss these plans and the strategy behind them. Presentation with Q and A to follow.
